

Trans-Amazon Expedition

Student Response: March 31, 2008

Name _____

In Notes From the Trail the author describes what makes the Amazon rainforest unique. What are those reasons, and why are they significant to the Earth?

How long will the expedition last, and where will the expedition team go?

At the end of Notes From the Trail, the author answers the question, "Why do you want to canoe the Amazon." Summarize the author's answer.

From the packing list, select what you think are the two most extraneous, or un-necessary items from each category: personal items, group gear, and food items. Explain your reasoning.

Using Cultural Connections, describe the challenges the team faces in communicating?

Using Cultural Connections, describe the general attitude of people that the team will likely meet.

Write about your emotions you might be feeling if you were getting ready to leave the USA with the expedition team.
