

Trans-Amazon Expedition

Student Response: April 7, 2007

Name _____

1. List three types of transportation that the team has already used in Notes from the Trail.

2. Define "migration," using Notes from the Trail. What are some reasons that animals that migrate?

3. Using Notes from the Trail, name two of the most common methods of transportation in the Amazon. Why do you think this is so?

4. What group of people is described in Cultural Connections? Where do these people live?

5. Why were the Bora people forced to move south around the year 1900?

6. Cultural Connections describes three different activities the Bora people do. What are these activities? Which one would you like to learn more about? Why?

7. In Cultural Connections, the author states that the Bora people are trying to preserve their language in order to preserve their culture. Why do you think that preserving language helps to preserve the culture?
