- 3.C.2a Write for a variety of purposes and for specified audiences in a variety of forms including narrative, expository, and persuasive writings.
- 3.C.2b Produce and format compositions for specified audiences using available technology.
- 3.C.3b Using available technology, produce compositions and multimedia works for specified audiences.

Method:

Read an example of a Tico Times about a particular Costa Rican. Have students think about what this person’s daily chores would include, what they might see on a daily basis. Ask students how they would feel about doing certain tasks or how they would respond to their daily lives.

Discuss perspective, and how perspective influences narrative styles. What point of view would work best to write a narrative? What type of words would you use to add emphasis and dramatic effect?

Have students re-write the Tico Times for the day from the subject’s perspective. Make sure students focus on a particular event, but also add enough details to contextualize the narrative.
